

Wildchild

Group Membership

For Schools, community clubs & children organisation groups

Introducing a new membership programme for schools, community clubs and children's organisation groups. This membership package is devised to enhance your efforts to teach children about their local wildlife in an informative, interesting and entertaining way. If you are looking for some extra inspiration from wildlife experts, ideas of how to engage a group outdoors or a pre-planned environmental activity, then this is the membership that has it all!

Enjoy the benefits!

You will receive a welcome pack containing:

- A membership certificate to display.
- Your Wildlife Watch pack which will include a children's magazine published four times a year, posters and an activity handbook full of information on wildlife and things to do. Plus, Staffordshire Wildlife Trust adult magazine three times a year and our What's On leaflet, to see all our events near you.
- A copy of our Wildchild Wildplay PDF booklet, which offers lots of practical ideas for outdoor crafts, games and activities.
- A free "30 Days Wild" schools pack, arriving in May, which will give your staff and children lots of ideas of how to spend 30 days wild in June.
- A free 30 minute Skype chat for your class / group with one of our members of staff. Does your class or group want to find out more about a current nature topic? Let them ask questions during a "Wildlife Question Time".
- A password to a locked section of our "Wildlife Watch" website, where you will find lots of useful resources.
- 10% off any activities you book with the Trust. Your school/ organisation/ community club can book a school trip for up to 60 children, an after school session or a group wildlife activity.

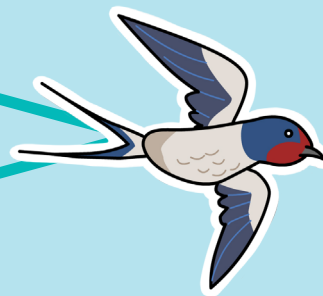

Your membership will:

- Save you time by offering you lots of outdoor creative ideas for activities and projects.
- Save you money by giving you access to a 10% discount off any booked activities with the Trust.
- Give your green credentials a boost within the local community, meet national curriculum objectives and contribute towards eco-school awards and sustainable schools.
